P R E F A C E.

COMMON Justice, and social Civility, induce the Editors to acknowledge their Obligation to the late ingenious Mr William Whitehead, whose original Labour (for laborious it surely was) in first forming a regular DIRECTORY for Newcastle and Gateshead, several Years ago, have greatly facilitated the Endeavours exerted in the present Undertaking.

The general Utility of such Arrangements, in large, trading, sea-port Towns, is confessedly evident, and needs no Power of Argument to support the Truth of it.

Newcastle upon Tyne hath long been justly estimated as the unrivalled EMPORIUM of the North of England; which must be impartially allowed, in whatever Point of View we consider its very extensive Commerce, Trade, and Navigation.

There seems no occasion to adduce any Description here, respecting the late laudable, additional Improvements of the Town: These are amply displayed in the Rev. Mr Brand's excellent History. The neatly finished new Bridge, which spans so fine a River, and joining the Battle-Bank, in Gateshead, becomes a Part of the great North Road, leading directly from Edinburgh to London, is alone sufficient to entertain the Curiosity of sensible Travellers, and, as Parliament granted a temporary Toll, towards defraying the Expences of rebuilding, it is hoped that nothing injurious to its Stability will ever be imprudently introduced, or any impeding Annoyance be suffered to incommode the Public, in their ordinary passing and repassing along it.

Much Apology ought to be previously offered, with regard to inadvertent Mistakes, which may probably appear in the Perusal of the following Compilation; but as public Notice was given so early as the fifth of November last, for the several Merchants and Traders, interested, to send in their Names and Places of Residence to the Printer; it is humbly presumed that those Mistakes will not be many. As to intermediate Removals, during the Time of printing, if the personal Names be but right in the general Arrangement, all apprehended Inconveniences may be easily done away, by the slightest enquiries. We shall therefore beg Leave to conclude, with our heartiest, sincere Wishes, that every honest Dealer in Trade and Commerce may ever meet with a constant Flow of profitable Success in all their honourable ENDEAVOURS.

BOROUGH OF GATESHEAD.

THE ancient BOROUGH of GATESHEAD, in the County Palatine of Durham, hath always been held in great respectability, by sensible Promoters of Trade and Commerce, from its ample share in the capital Coal Trade of the River Tyne; and its very advantageous Situation for many improveable Manufactories. Its Community at large, are supposed to have lost considerable Immunities and Privileges, by the Bridge-toll, South-shore, Anchorage, Salt-meadows, and the Lordship itself, being all alienated by temporary Leafes, Surrenders, or other arbitrary Estrangements, varding Investigation being precluded, by the too falsely delicate Courtesy granted to the unsubstantiated Claim of mere Prescription.

On the east side of the upper part of Forestreet, adjoining to Park-lane, are the Remains of a ROMAN CATHOLIC CHAPEL; which in the Year 1745, still exhibited the venerable aspect of pious Magnificence; but was at that period totally demolished, by a lawless Mob, assembled on the coming of Prince William, in his road to Scotland. Further up the east side of the street, above Busy-burn, stands the forsaken CHAPEL of ST EDMUND; which, with a HOSPITAL for poor BEDES-MEN, is said to have been munificently endowed with improveable Freeholds, designed by the piously generous Founders to enlarge its public Benefits in future; but, alas! though advanced in Improvements, provements, they seem to have been wrested by the private grasp of selfish Individuals ; and are consequently irrecoverably lost to the Community, in the secret dissipation of perverted Charities, unless rightly directed PUBLIC SPIRIT should ever again re-assume its benevolent social disposition. O Tempora ! O Mores !

THE TOLLBOOTH, in the middle of Forestreet, which now wears such a very indifferent appearance, was heretofore in the order of neatness ; being originally built for regularly holding the half-yearly Courts of the Bishop of Durham, who is Lord Paramount of the Borough. It was ornamented in front with the Arms of that truly pious and benevolent Prelate, NATHANIEL LORD CREWE, who so richly endowed the humane Institution at Bamborough Castle, and whose numerous charitable Legacies, render his Memory venerable indeed ! reflecting no small Degree of Honour to the reverend Order of which he was so worthy a Member.

Soon after the great Flood, in the Year 1771, the late honourable SIR THOMAS CLAVERING procured a regular POST-OFFICE to be established in Gateshead ; with Branches to South-Shields, and Hexham ; independent of those in Newcastle ; the utility and convenience of which, are now experienced ; not only by the Inhabitants, but also by a very extensive Neighbourhood

THE FREEHOLDERS, in this Borough, are more than one hundred in number ; remarkable for their spirited Exertions at the contested Elections for Knights of the Shire. There are also two incorporated Companies of Trades, or Mysteries ; the Free-men of which are indefeasibly entitled, by their Charters, to proportionate shares of a'l the advantages and temporary profits, arising from the Herbage and Soil of the high and low Fells ; as also those of the more beneficial Town-Fields and Bensham-Common ; be the same arable Meadow, or Pasture

SINCE the finishing of the NEW BRIDGE, in the year 1781, the Public have beheld the Place greatly improved, by additional neat Buildings ; and the spacious crescent Road, winding from the bottom of Battle-bank, past the west end of Hillgate and Cannon-street, up to the high Forestreet ; comprehending the whole of those Passages formerly known by the names of Low-Church-chair, and High-Church-chair, distinguished in the following Compliment, by the Appellation of High Church-street, and Low Church-street ; intersecting at the west end of Cannon-street. The Houses, excellent Pavement, and pleasing Compatability of this long wished for Alteration, redound much to the Reputation of those ingenious Architects and Surveyors, who designed and accomplished the Work ; as the Inhabitants are thereby relieved from their innumerable Inconveniences, in passing and repassing the old narrow dirty Chairs, or Lanes

Lanes, leading direct, to the Church ; and the more difficult steepness of Battle-bank. The unfavourable idea, usually entertained by decent travelling Strangers, of the local situation in general, is now luckily done away.

SINCE that Period also, Borough-holders (whose Right is founded on personal Admittances, granted to them by the Bishop, or his Lessee, as being Proprietors of certain freehold Premises within the Manor) and incorporated Freemen, have had the Satisfaction of beholding their TOWN-FIELDS brought, as it were, from a fruitless Wilderness of Sterility, into flourishing Meads and Pastures ; full as promising in Fertility as the best cultivated Inclosures round the Neighbourhood ; besides affording a very flattering Prospect of the aggregate Estate becoming still more valuable to them whenever the remaining Allotment of BENSHAM-COMMON shall be put into similar Cultivation. All this manifest Public Advantage, is confessedly owing to the judicious Management and generous Attention of a select Number of Gentlemen, whose seasonable Exertions ought to be respectfully acknowledged by every interested Individual.

GATESHEAD would still become of more Importance, were a regular weekly Market (Thursdays) lawfully established there ; similar to those of South-Shields, Wolsingham, and other less Public Towns within the County. Oakwellgate-street seems to be pointed out to the Consideration of Merchants, Farmers, and Traders, as a very convenient Situation for such a promising Design; without incommoding the high Post Road at all. Whether this sort of slight Observation be, or be not seriously admitted; there is surely no Impropriety in the Editor's sincerely wishing the respectable Neighbourhood full Enjoyment of every Benefit, that can possibly be derived from their local Advantages.

POSTSCRIPT.

THE Compilers take the liberty of observing to their Readers, that whatever omission of names, or mistakes of places of residence, may probably occur in the general arrangement; they must be principally attributed to the want of attention to the public Notice given by hand-bills published so early as the 5th of November last, and to no other cause whatsoever. The most extensive circulation of publications of so useful a nature, ultimately brings to every description of Traders, and all others in public characters, much more advantage that can be derived to those who undertake them. They answer, in most points, all the purposes of Newspaper-advertisements, with the additional advantage of their having the greatest probability of continuing longer, and of their being ever ready at the Trader's hand.

It being intended to renew and enlarge this DIRECTORY yearly, all persons carrying on business within the precincts of NEWCASTLE and GATESHEAD, and other Merchants, Artists and Traders, residing in their vicinity, who wish to have their Names appear in the general arrangement; are hereby respectfully fully invited to leave their proper address (before the 10th of October next) with Mrs ANGUS, Printer; who will take care to have it timely registered, gratis, in alphabet books prepared for the purpose. No false delicacy, no supercilious distinction, will even be thought of in the work; but all Tradesmen, and Mechanics of every denomination, be impartially treated on the ground of fair, gradual Equality; for, as it hath been pointedly remarked by a Writer of great judgment, in one of best rational modern Essays Great Britain can produce,

*Honour and Shame from no Condition rise,
 As well your Part! THERE all the Honour lies.*
